

COL

4th Colloquium on Ottoman Literature

Thu, Nov 20, 2025 – 14:30-18:00

14:30-16:00

Şerife Yalçinkaya (Ege University, İzmir):

Places Have Memories: The Cultural Life of the Muslim Population in Izmir in the Seventeenth Century

Edith Ambros (Near Eastern Studies, University of Vienna):

On Some Secular and Religious Garshuni Turkish Poems Sung in the 19th Century

Elif Sezer Aydın (Sabancı University, Istanbul):

Ottoman Graffiti: 19th Century Storybooks as a Source of Popular Art?

16:00-16:30 Coffee Break

16:30-17:30

Şeyma Benli (Istanbul Medeniyet University):

Types of Authorship in Ottoman Literature

Ercan Akyol (Near Eastern Studies, University of Vienna):

An Istanbulite Poet for a Mamluk Patron: The Story of Mūnisü'l-‘uşşāk (1509), an Unknown Şehrengiz

Gisela Procházka-Eisl (Near Eastern Studies, University of Vienna):

“Owls Nesting in the Ruins of a Broken World” – About the Translation Project of Sürūrī’s muḥḥikāt and its Problems

Campus Universität Wien/ Hof 4/ Seminarraum Turkologie, Institut für Orientalistik

Organizers: Gisela Procházka-Eisl and Ercan Akyol