

NATURE, ENVIRONMENT AND SOCIETY IN EURASIA

Online Veranstaltung über Zoom

Meeting-ID: 971 2080 9583

09.03.2022 - 22.06.2022

Kenncode: 911377

Mittwochs 18.30 - 20.00 Uhr

Der Teilnahme-Link ist auf der Website zu finden.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 09.03. Verena Winiwarter (Vienna)
Does the Danube have an Environmental History? Doing history at the nexus of places and people | 11.05. Elizabeth Williams (Lowell, MA)
States of Cultivation: Environment and Empire in the Late Ottoman and French Mandate Eastern Mediterranean |
| 16.03. James M. Gustafson (Indiana)
'Developmentalism' and Resource Nationalism in Iran's Modernist Press, 1906-1911 | 18.05. Faisal Husain (Pennsylvania)
Rivers of the Sultan: The Tigris and Euphrates in the Ottoman Empire |
| 23.03. Onur İnal (Vienna)
Animal Power in the Age of Railroads: Transportation Technology and Hybrid-Camels in Late Ottoman Anatolia | 25.05. Jeanne Féaux de la Croix (Tübingen)
Re-cognizing Care? Environmental Scholarship and Activism in Central Asia |
| 30.03. David Moon (London)
Saiga antelopes (Saiga tatarica) in the environmental history of the Eurasian steppe and desert | 01.06. Meliz Ergin (Istanbul)
Climate and Fiction in Contemporary Turkey |
| 06.04. Zozan Pehlivan (Minnesota)
Kurdistan's Mobile Capitalism: Putting-Out System in Sheep and Cattle Farming | 08.06. Oleksandr Polianichev (Stockholm)
Evergreen Imperialism: The Making of the Tsarist "Tropics" in the South Caucasus |
| 27.04. Nicholas B. Breyfogle (Ohio)
Lake Baikal and the Hydroelectric Moment in World History | 15.06. Aleksander Shopov (New York)
Urban Cultures of Flower Breeding in Ottoman Istanbul |
| 04.05. Samuel Dolbee (Cambridge, MA)
Locusts of Power: Borders, Empire, and Environment in the Modern Middle East, 1858-1939 | 22.06. Chris Gratien (Charlottesville)
Lessons of the Late Ottoman Frontier |

Für nähere Informationen
Hier scannen